When we said hello did my feelings show?
I know you didn't mean to break my heart
But when you left, it tore my world apart Though it's been so long, it's hard to carry on I still have to tell myself each day that I'm over you Oh, can't you see it in my eyes?
I'll be searching for the rest of my life for love that's true with someone like you
Oh, I'll never find someone like you
I must've been insane to let you get away
I couldn't tell you how I felt inside and now I'm paying the price for my foolish pride
The time has come and gone to let you know that I was wrong
Now there's nothing I can say to make it up to you
Once again I'll watch you go
But it's killing me that you'll never know just what I'd do
for someone like you
Oh, I'll never find someone like you
I'm holdin tight to broken dreams I've left behind
It's lonely fate but I will wait until the end of time
For someone like you
Oh-I know that I was wrong
Can't you see it in my eyes?
I'll be searching for the rest of my life for love that's
true with someone like you
Oh, I'll never find someone like you
Will I ever fine...(someone like you)
(oh, How'd I ever let you go?)
(I try every day...but I still have this big hole in my heart)
(I'll never find someone like you)
