whisper all your secrets,
tell me all your lies.
screaming your confessions,
show me where you hide.
all your roots are lying,
deep within the dirt.
love already dying,
long before it's born.

if I were me I'd wait forever.
what's your hurry? what's your hurry?
never learned how to say never.
what's your worry? what's your worry?
once upon a time - the end.

could you hear me calling?
did you hear me cry?
do you feel me falling,
frozen in the light?
space between our moments,
pause between a breath.
sin between the sermon,
life between death.

if I were me I'd wait forever.
never learned how to say never.

if I were me I'd wait forever.
pardon me for all the bother.
i'm so sorry, i'm so sorry.
once upon a time - the end.
