In the morning
When I wake up
I turn the tv on
To the morning news

It seems like
Everyday
More love is needed now
For us to find our way

All I know, the world is turning upside down
And there ain't nothin' I can do
I can wish, for the impossible
But all I really want is you

Time changes
Rearranges
Everything around
It's hard to hold our ground

But together
We can weather
Any storm that comes our way
We can chase the clouds away

All I know, the world is turning upside down
And there ain't nothin' I can do
I can wish, for the impossible
But all I really want is you
