What you feel here in the city
Is a rhythm that carries you along
You know where you belong
There may be noise and traffic
But it's kind of a song

As you walk through cars in gridlock
There's a tempo that shows you the way
Make a path through your day
The sound is there to guide you
And your troubles fade away

Hear the beat
Of the music of the street

Get in synch
With the pattern of your feet
Find your stride, it will take you for a ride

The way to travel here in midtown
Is to listen to the pulse of the sound
You hear all around
In the spirit of the city
Is where it's found

Hear the beat
Of the music of the street
Get in synch
With the pattern of your feet
Find your stride, it will take you for a ride
