I can sense a storm is near
As I lay here and feel the tears
I try to live with no regrets
But there are things that I can't forget

But I know, when it rains
The winter's ending
Rain must fall, so life can grow
That's the way things go

And it will take this rainy day
To wash the memories away
As I lie here, and contemplate
I know I will just have to wait

Cause I know, that in time
The weather passes
Clouds will break
Light will come, and shine on me, shine on me

So let it rain, let it rain, rain upon my heart
Let it rain, let it rain, so I can make a new start
Let it rain, let it rain, rain upon my heart
Let it rain, let it rain, rain rain down on me

By myself I'll find a way
In the darkness of this day
To try to see my way around
Tears that fall as the rain comes down

And time, I have learned
Will bring a new season
And I know, yes I know
I will surely see the sun, see the sun

So let it rain, let it rain, rain upon my heart
Let it rain, let it rain, so I can make a new start
Let it rain, let it rain, rain upon my heart
Let it rain, let it rain, rain rain down on me
