You say the sun is bright, and I say it looks like night
You say the grass is green, well I don't know what you mean

I'm hearing what you say, but I do not get it anyway
You see the children play, well I see them fade away

Don't give me your illusion to add to my confusion.
Don't give me your illusion to add to my confusion.

A dark sun, to cover my tears.
A dark sun, to cover my fears
My mind is crawling, on my knees I'm falling.
My mind is crawling, on my knees I'm falling.
A dark sun, to cover my tears.
A dark sun, to cover my fears

(Ah ooowahoowhoaoo ooowahoowhoaoo
ooowahoowhoaooooo
ooowahoowhoaoo ooowahoowhoaoo
ooowahoowhoaooooo)

You turn to me and call, see what's written on the wall.
I didn't know the wall was there, and did you think that I would care.

You say you'll show me, but you do not ask me what I see.

You see your green grass, well it's better that you don't ask.

Don't give me your illusion to add to my confusion.
Don't give me your illusion to add to my confusion.

A dark sun, to cover my tears.
A dark sun, to cover my fears
My mind is crawling, on my knees I'm falling.
My mind is crawling, on my knees I'm falling.

A dark sun, to cover my tears.
A dark sun, to cover my fears

(Ah ooowahoowhoaoo ooowahoowhoaoo
ooowahoowhoaooooo
ooowahoowhoaoo ooowahoowhoaoo
ooowahoowhoaooooo)

You live under your sun, while my mind it comes undone.
And you sit there staring, I fade away not caring
What covers my world this way? Well all I see is black and gray.
You say to come back, but I can not from an unseen track.

Don't give me your illusion to add to my confusion.
Don't give me your illusion to add to my confusion.

A dark sun, to cover my tears.
A dark sun, to cover my fears
My mind is crawling, on my knees I'm falling.
My mind is crawling, on my knees I'm falling.
A dark sun, to cover my tears.
A dark sun, to cover my fears

(Ah ooowahoowhoaoo ooowahoowhoaoo
ooowahoowhoaooooo
ooowahoowhoaoo ooowahoowhoaoo

Blue skies above my head...It's not real.

Green grass below my feet...It's not real.

What a fine day now...It's not real.

It's just my illusion to add to your confusion
Oh it's just my illusion to add to your confusion

A dark sun...
