I can hear the killer words like a whisper on the wind Not easing my fright about, about this place that I am in

I'm hiding in the shadows from the moonlight above, while I'm hunting down the voice, the voice of the dove

If there were a spark I would stomp out the light
So I can keep it dark or the dove will take flight

I can't scream, oh, it's another bad dream
and I can't scream, oh, it's another bad dream
and I can't scream, oh, it's another bad dream

I shiver in the dark now, that's where you see me
I shiver in the dark now, you got to believe me
I shiver in the dark now, that's where you leave me
I shiver in the dark, shiver in the dark

I don't know how I got here,
but I shiver in the dark now from the fear

I'm standing here feeling naked and bare No protection from these words in the air

Just a damp cold mist closing in around me And I can't find where I should be Clothed in only this mist, I'm shivering and cold I'm afraid and whist, because I'm not that bold

I can't scream, oh, it's another bad dream
and I can't scream, oh, it's another bad dream
and I can't scream, oh, it's another bad dream

I shiver in the dark now, that's where you see me
I shiver in the dark now, you got to believe me

I shiver in the dark now, that's where you leave me
I shiver in the dark, shiver in the dark

I don't know how I got here,
but I shiver in the dark now from the fear

In the dark half seen shadows blend and fuse blurred and shifting wildly as if to confuse where I am there is no way back

The only way to end this is to attack

But things are not right and I'm feeling the fright
I have no will to fight when it's dark in the night

I can't scream, oh, it's another bad dream
and I can't scream, oh, it's another bad dream
and I can't scream, oh, it's another bad dream

I shiver in the dark now, that's where you see me
I shiver in the dark now, you got to believe me
I shiver in the dark now, that's where you leave me
I shiver in the dark, shiver in the dark

I don't know how I got here,
but I shiver in the dark now from the fear

I shiver in the dark now
I shiver in the dark now
I shiver in the dark now
I shiver in the dark now
I shiver in the dark now
I shiver in the dark now
I shiver in the dark now
I shiver in the dark now
I shiver in the dark now
I shiver in the dark now
