

Nina

"New Year's Eve"

Visit "New Year's Eve" on MotoLyrics.com

Normally I'd be french-twisting my hair and selecting the right earrings to wear it's a special evening for most normally I'd be proposing a toast but not this year because I'm here the part All around me you're there indifference has found me I know it's not in fashion wearing heartache on your sleeve but I'm here and you're there so who cares what I wear on new year's eve nor I'd be knee-deep in champagne I'd kick my heels up until neighbors complain it's a glamorous evening for most normally I'd be upstaging the host but not this year because I'm here the part All around me you're there indifference has found me I know I should have dressed up but I just can't make believe now I'm here and you're there so who cares what I wear on new year's eve i 're flirting with some other girl tonight I'm not flirting with some other guy I keep thinking how last year at midnight you blew me away with the resolution that you made I'm here the party?
L ar Ound me you're there indifference has found me and tonight before the ball drops I'll grab my coat and leave I'm here and you're there so who cares what I wear on new year's eve

Visit Nina page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.