to beat this one
to beat myself
to win the brawl
to kill with no help
believe in the strength
the promise that you hold within all of your will
and all the regrets you've got

pulling away
from the only thing that was a ritual, of all time given the nature, of the damage thats done, just shows you the hate we all hide

suffer
bleeding
going down this road(down this road) shaking
now your fiending
you're going out of control (its out of control)

one more time to make this right
i can beat this all
i can win this fight
with all of my hate
and all of my rage
i will break myself
dragging it out
till i have completely ruined it all (once i've)(ruined it all)

let it unfold

until we pay
let it all unfold upon ourselves

watch it all
break away
washing all of this away
x2

break the hold
within my own two eyes
break the hold with all your promises kept
break the hold
break the hold with all your promises to beat this all

to win this fight
to kill with help
and all your regrets
the hate we hide

bleeding
going down this road (down this road)
shaking
fiending
now your out of control
