with false hopes, all my dreams, were thrown out, taunted in front of me i need slack, and more time, with one grasp, now give me what is fucking mine, now I'm stuck, with whats left, i cant wait, no i cannot wait, i will not, i cannot, wait to light the fucking floor now

I will not be told (x4)

So will you run for your fucking life?
can you conger up some pride in taking your last step night wishes and dead dreams will always present themselves in me all my hopes and prayers were deafened by all of your ears so show me, what is mine, give it here, I see it every fucking night scream at me, with foul eyes, you will fall off, i hear so many fucking times theres no one left, no one left, its me now, and i cant fucking stand it my eyes burn, with blindness, when heads turn, just for one to say yes

just for one to say just for one

all this shit, all of it, feels so fake, all of it, i cant take and i will not be told,

cause im not going to take it.
