"Easy Way To Hell"

Visit "Easy Way To Hell" on MotoLyrics.com

What's the difference among the life and death?
Otherwise, is better that you find the way
You could be dead, and you don't know
Choose the way and don't be afraid in hell

Choose the way and don't be afraid in hell

The death is waiting for your last memory
Hating when you are praying
Just say good bye to this fucking life
The hell will be with you very fast

This is the easiest way to find the hell
This is the easiest way to find the death

Come on! Let's go, you need to run in hell
Run away, scape from your intolerant pain
Come on! Let's go, you need to run in hell
And you'll have all the wishes in your bloody hands

No more! I hate to tell you this fucking shit.
