I shot my man yesterday I did it good
I shot my man yesterday I did it good
I shot my man yesterday I did it good
I left no traces, sleeping heavenly peace

I shot his kid yesterday I killed him too
I shot his kid yesterday I killed him too
I shot his kid yesterday I killed him too
Was next in line, to make me feel fine

And the mother of his child I did her too Yeah the mother of the child oh I had to yeah the mother of the child I did her too oh how she cried, I make her feel alright

Now I'm wakening from this dream I had last night
As if it wasn't just a dream I had last night
now I'm wakening from this dream I had last night
I feel a cool breeze, I wanna sleep heavenly peace

I killed them all yesterday I did it good
I killed them all yesterday I did it good
I killed them all yesterday I did it good

sleeping heavenly peace
sleeping heavenly peace
sleeping heavenly peace
