Hello my dove
I'll whisper to you now
It's a long life
There's plenty of time for loneliness

Hello my dove
I'm calling for you now
It's a big world
There's plenty room for your solitude
So if you're in the mood
Bat an eyelash for me
And you just might keep me one more day

Hello my dove
I'll whisper in your ear
It's a lonely world
I'm blessed to have you near me

Hello my dove
I'm trying to tell you now
It's a big life
There's plenty of room for your books and tea
But is there room for me?

Hello my dove
I whisper in your ear
It's a wondrous thing we've found
Don't let it disappear
I promise you my years
And all my tears
Whenever you are down
