There is a place I go when I am feeling low
Where the sirens fade and you can hear the waters flow
The stars lay scattered in the open sky
And those lights by the bridge shine through the night of my eyes
I met her on a bench by the Evergreen
I have learned that love is never what it seems to be
The time for tears and all of your remorse
Has come and gone with the close of my front door
I walk alone for now and forever
I walk alone for worse or for better
I walk alone for now and forever
Without you
Spring is here and I watch the flowers grow
I have washed away my fears with rock n' roll
Flowers bloom in the middle of a deserted lawns
When the winter comes these flowers will be dead and gone
I walk alone for now and forever
I walk alone for worse or for better
I walk alone for now and forever
Without you
She lit a fire and burned all of our photographs
I can still remember the way she used to laugh Cause the secrets that we shared they haunt me in every silent night
Just like phantoms who go off their paths and lose their flight
I walk alone for now and forever
I walk alone for worse or for better
I walk alone for now and forever
Without you
I can feel my world closing in on me
Sometimes it all feels like I'm living in a never ending dream
