We've never lived a fairytale we've never found our way far beyond the sidewalk here I stay I'm hanging on I do believe that faith will lead us right It's not what we have dreamt of
but this is our life

I pray you'll never find another tempted by the fun
I wouldn't really blame you I sometimes run hoping I'd be better off and leave into the night
It's not what we have dreamt of
but this is our life

One day we'll make it home
This is how I feel
One day we'll make it home
This is how I feel
This is worth fighting for
This is worth living for
This is worth fighting for, fighting for

I love you more than you believe that I could ever do there's no one else above you that's my truth along the way I've made mistakes

I know you've made a few It's not what we have dreamt of
but this is our life

One day we'll make it home
This is how I feel
One day we'll make it home
This is how I feel
This is worth fighting for
This is worth fighting for, fighting for

Remember how we were the day we met Remember how we felt, so good Remember me, remember me

One day we'll make it home
One day we'll make it home
One day we'll make it home
One day we'll make it home
This is worth fighting for

One day we'll make it home
