I've been watching at the circle turns around
As I stare at it sucks me in Turn the light down 'cause that feels better
I am falling down into the deep of me

Can you break me up into some little pieces
I'm stuck I'm nowhere Lost my direction
I can't pretend like I'm a better man
I'll do anything if you can crush me

I've been watching at the square which shrinks and Spreads
As I stare at it does stare back
Turn the light down or it will uncover me
Like I'm stupid
Like I'm idiot

Can you break me up into some little pieces
I'm stuck I'm nowhere Lost my direction
I can't pretend like I'm a better man
I'll do anything if you crush me

Anyhow life goes on
I need no sympathy of yours
Anyway my life's rolling on
I need no sympathy of yours

"Get your ass down here and say please
Beg on your knees down here and say please" Can you
Break me up
Into some little pieces
I'm stuck I'm nowhere Lost my direction
I can't pretend like I'm a better man
I'll do anything if you crush me

Can you break me up into some little pieces
I'm stuck I'm nowhere Lost my direction
I can't pretend like I'm a better man
I'll do anything if you crush me
