Wake up Stand up I know But for what
One thing I crave Weekend without computer games Pull the trigger and kill the zombies
Sorry I'm done

So many things I have let go
No doubt Wanna do something else
I need to find something before I'm bored of
everything
So many things I left undone
No doubt Wanna be someone else
I need to find something before I'm bored of
everything
Before I'm bored of everything

Voicemail is full I know She calls me at home
How much is my car and how much is my gift
Pull the trigger kill the zombies
Sorry I'm done

So many things I have let go
No doubt wanna do something else
I need to find something before I'm bored of
everything
So many things I left undone
No doubt wanna be someone else
I need to find something before I'm bored of
everything

I still can believe when you say it's not true
I still can believe when you say it's not too late
I still can believe when you say it's not real
I still can believe when you say I'm not to late

So many things I have let go
No doubt wanna do something else
I need to find something before I'm bored of
everything
So many things I left undone
No doubt wanna be someone else
I need to find something before I'm bored of

everything
Before I'm bored of everything
