I woke up and I found that I was sleeping on the couch
Cast away the papers unread
Half awake and a bit confused
Just trying to understand if I was dreaming or not

I hate it I hate it I hate it when you are not around When you are gone
I hate it I hate it I hate it when you say it's the truth

I walked down the street to buy some junks and tooth paste
I couldn't find my favorite ones
I unsealed the new paste and I'm trying to understand How does this world look to you

I hate it I hate it I hate it when you are not around When
you are gone
I hate it I hate it I hate it when you say it's the truth

I woke up and I found that I was sleeping on the couch
If I was dreaming or not
