No time to waste Now I can't back away
Pain is what they use as a bait to tame me

So I built this wall again
I wanna make things clear to my head
So I built this wall again around my faith

No place to hide I can see they're everywhere
No deference Sneaking into my room

So I built this wall again
I wanna make things clear to my head
So I built this wall again around my faith
I'm just a snake-fighting snake
Anyone wants to see me dying
Go get the ticket
It costs you only your soul

I'm trying to synchronize with you
Please dig me out of the hole if you can
I'm waiting for so long to bite someone like you
And I'm trying to synchronize with you
You've gotta dig me out
