Because I wanted to see what's next in the fairy tale
I couldn't see what was right beside me
The flattering smile I used to make
It seems to fall at once

Because I've found something so beautiful
Before it's lost again

In the night with this amazing starry sky
Even if I have to throw everything away
I wanted to see you so much
In the night with this amazing starry sky
If you were here with me
I wonder what I would say

The shoe laces are getting loose
I'm keeping my mind sane, fumbling with it
It's just 2 stations away and it's hell far away for me
Though I don't need to rush if I never give up

Because I've found something so beautiful
Before it's lost again

In the night with this amazing starry sky
Even if I have to throw everything away
I wanted to see you so much
In the night with this amazing starry sky
If you were here with me
I wonder what I would say

I thought there is no such thing as
Unchanging over a thousand years
I wonder how I could miss it
My friends
I thought there is no such thing as
Unchanging until it ends
I wonder how I could miss it

In the night with this amazing starry sky
Even if I have to throw everything away
I wanted to see you so much

In the night with this amazing starry sky
If you were here with me
I wonder what I would say
