We've been fighting against the wall which you have
Built
Cause you're already one of us now
We've been swimming across the creek which you have dug
Cause you're already one of us now

Like anyone would say I'm so careless
What's wrong with that man
Like anyone would say I'm so reckless What's wrong with that girl

I'm indifferent to my rights to my wealth and to your
Ugly fake smile
All I need is my car is my stereo and a little time of Mine away from you

Like anyone would say I'm so mindless
What's wrong with that mum
Like anyone would say I'm motionless
What's wrong with that dad

I'm indifferent to my rights to my wealth and to your
Ugly fake smile
All I need is my car is my stereo I'm tired of hearing
You say
"Hey man, you're stupid"

You said "We've been fighting against the wall which
You have built
Cause you're already one of us now
We've been swimming across the creek which you have
dug
Cause you're already one of us now"

I'm growing sick day by day

I'm growing sick day by day
I'm growing sick day by day
Why can't you see you're not my friend?
You bitch!

I am looking for someone to get me out here now
Well I thought I found it out once in your eyes
I am still fighting for something to help me out here
Now
Well I thought I found it out once in your mind

You said
"Sign here, then you are free"
To me it sounds like this
"Sign here, then you are dead"
I'm tired of hearing you say

"We've been fighting against the wall which you have
Built
Cause you're already one of us now
We've been swimming across the creek which you have
dug
Cause you're already one of us now"

Hey

"We've been fighting against the wall which you have
Built
Cause you're already one of us now
We've been swimming across the creek which you have
dug
Cause you're already one of us now"

I'm growing sick day by day
I'm growing sick day by day
I'm growing sick day by day
Why can't you see you are not my friend?
You bitch!
