A boy, a beautiful, beautiful boy,
Eyes of green, eyes of green
Mouth like the sun
Eyes of green
Eyes of green

Mouth burn like sun
Like a red star
Like a red star
But his eyes were green

Got a strange fascination
I've been holding on the one
For that strange revelation
I've been holding on to love

But I'm sick of waiting
'Round this bird house
Enough flesh wounds to make a kill
I know nothing lasts forever
If you won't love me, someone will

Like a red star
Like a red star
Like a red star

Like a blue scar
