Sitting at the window
Used to be a time my past fly
And always see you smile
You smile, hey, you smile
Used to be friendly
But now you put your guard up
Cause he beat your love down (love down, love down)
I clearly understand how hard it can be
To trust another man after he did you wrong
But baby look at me
Take a chance and see
I can be the one
To dust that stigma off

[Chorus]

Let me fix your broken heart
Fix your broken heart, fix your broken heart girl
Oh girl, let me be the one who show you what real love
do
Baby can't you see I be the man you need
Let me fix your broken heart

Rather be lonely than let someone come around and Just play with your mind (your mind, your mind)
A lot of people out there
But you figure there's no reason
To either waste the time (the time, the time)

I clearly understand how hard it can be
To trust another man after he did you wrong
But baby look at me
Take a chance and see
I can be the one
To dust that stigma off

[Chorus]

Let me fix your broken heart
Fix your broken heart, fix your broken heart girl
Oh girl, let me be the one who show you what real love
do
Baby can't you see I be the man you need

Let me fix your broken heart

It's like your love's been passed around
And you watching them throw it away
And deep inside you're scared to open that door
Cause you're praying with day it will change

[Chorus]

Let me fix your broken heart
Fix your broken heart, fix your broken heart girl
Oh girl, let me be the one who show you what real love
do
Baby can't you see I be the man you need
Let me fix your broken heart
Fix your broken heart, fix your broken heart girl
Let me fix your broken heart
Oh girl, let me be the one who show you what real love
do
Baby can't you see I be the man you need
Let me fix your broken heart
Whoa, baby let me fix your broken heart
Whoa, yeah, oh, oh, hey, fix your broken heart.
