"Easier To Cry"

I'm a bitch, I'm insane and insecure baby
Hold me with your love
But 'aint funny that you shot loud every time you lie
When I cry river just to know just another friday night
That we make it together
I put you first, but sometimes it hurts
You make it hard to love
You make it hard to keep a smile, you make hard to me to trust you
But you make me easier to cry, you make it easier to cry
Every step that we make now in days feel closer to the end
And my foolish fate in you it's getting harder to defend
When I cry river and here we go again losing our ..t three in the morning
I forgot what the point is, this is no type of living
I put you first but sometimes it's hurts
You make it hard to love you
You make it hard to keep my smile
You make it smile foe me to trust you
But you make it easier, easier to cry
But you make it easier, easier to cry
I'm letting go, just let it go
You made it so impossible
Can't count the tears that I give it to you
So I'm braking down, just brake it out
You made it all so difficult
Can I start over without you
You make it hard to love you
You make it hard to keep my smile
You make it smile foe me to trust you
But you make it easier, easier to cry
But you make it easier, easier to cry
But you make it easier, easier to cry
So is It easier, easier to cry
So is It easier, easier to cry
