Follow me into the water
Get the sound of her pure tones
As we walk a little deeper
We can tell each other secrets no one else know
The sun is fading from my view Dont worry I will take care of you
The Sun is tired eager is the Moon
When I am with you I know I will be home soon Take my hand and I make sure well be home before dawn
Take my hand and I make sure well be home before dark

Follow me into the forest
Get the Sun out of your eyes Here where nothing real can harm us Where butterflies and dandelions, where orange leaves lie
The sky is slowly getting darker Dont worry Ill be your protector
Your eyes are telling me you are tired Dont worry home is around the corner Take my hand, and Ill make sure we are home before
dawn
Take my hand, and Ill make sure we are home before
