Verse 1

If I was to walk up on a
Sexy women in a corner
Would she still look like a model chick?
Fine as hell, coke bottle, body thick
If I saw her early tomorrow
Wonder would I still wanna call her
Would I take her number and throw it away?
Is she cool enough to save her for a rainy day?

Pre Chorus

Cause from over here
She looking like Beyonce
Mixed with Kelly mixed with Halle
That's a domino
Girl come over here
And let me take a closer look
Cause you know that I've been fooled before

Chorus

By the make up
By the strobe lights
By the way they move their body to a song like
(Heeey)
Too many club lights
(Heeey)
Damn them club lights
Bitch look bad
Under them club lights
Whole lot of ass
Under them club lights
Throwing all this cash
Under them club lights
Under them club lights
Damn them club lights

Verse 2 (Tank)

Intoxicated
I've been drinking
It's the liquor
It's not me thinking
Vision blurred I done lost all sight
And behind these shades all the hoes look right
You know I can't trust no picture
Can I see you with no filter
Cause if you really look like that in a real life
I'm willing to show you what it feel like

Pre Chorus

Cause from over here
I think I see a clique full of Rhianna's
Y'all all looking tropical
So come over here
And let me take a closer look at you
Cause you know that I've been fool before

Chorus

By the make up
By the strobe lights
By the way they move their body to a song like
(Heeey)
Too many club lights
(Heeey)
Damn them club lights
Bitch look bad
Under them club lights
Whole lot of ass
Under them club lights
Throwing all this cash
Under them club lights
Under them club lights
Damn them club lights

Bridge

Am I wrong
Cause I wanna know
If she bad I'mma take her home
If she cool I keep her on the low
I'm just saying I've been fool before

Chorus

By the make up
By the strobe lights
By the way they move their body to a song like

(Heeey)
Too many club lights
(Heeey)
Damn them club lights

If she bad, if she bad I don't know
Too many club lights
Turn the DJ turn them lights on
Damn them club lights
