What happened to us? We still try to find what's going on
It gave up our love, can't explain where we went wrong
I'm playing when it's crashing down Even tho we miss the parture
So many scars, two broken hearts

You tell me you wish me well
You can have thought about a better way to tell me
I could swear we were ment to be
I use to think that you're made for me
Now all I have left are this memories, how could you leave me on, could you leave me on How you let this stuff, don't know what to do
I can give my life if you want me to I can't believe the thigs that you put me through it's like i'm dead and gone, dead and gone,
What it will take for you to give us another chance Way would you make so many promise's just a brake We need make a turn 'cause I don't want to crash and burn
Now we're alone, just you and I
So I know we can work it out
I can't stand to walk alone
Another day without you
I could swear we were ment to be
I use to think that you're made for me
Now all I have left are this memories, how could you
leave me on, could you leave me on
How you let this stuff, don't know what to do
I can give my life if you want me to
I can't believe the thigs that you put me through it's like
i'm dead and gone, dead and gone, Way did you go? If you need a time you could told me so It's like you forget way we were fighting for Ooh
Sometimes in life things are fall, so I'm predicteble
I could swear we were ment to be
I use to think that you're made for me
Now all I have left are this memories, how could you

leave me on, could you leave me on
How you let this stuff, don't know what to do
I can give my life if you want me to I can't believe the things that you put me through it's like
i'm dead and gone, dead and gone,
It's like I'm dead and gone
