You tell him you hanging with your girl
That ain't who you gonna see
And as soon that you leave him girl
You be calling me yeah
And I be saying to leave him girl
But that ain't there where you wanna be
Come and join me in my world

So you don't have to be
Lying, cheating, flirting,
Out all night
Crying, are you so afraid, to hurt him, yeah
I hate to be the one to say it's over
But baby you already heading over
So do us all a favor, you, him and me
And let's make it official, oh yeah
Why don't we make it official, oh yeah

You can stay with me, let's just do it right
I don't wanna be, the nigga on the side
Your body already agrees
So let's make it official
Why you so afraid, afraid to moving on
If you don't wanna let him go
You can let me know, whoa
I'll give you your space
Watch the tears fall down your face
Baby I'll do what it takes

So you don't have to be
Lying, cheating, flirting,
Out all night
Crying, are you so afraid, to hurt him, yeah
I hate to be the one to say it's over
But baby you already heading over
So do us all a favor, you, him and me
And let's make it official, oh yeah
Why don't we make it official, oh yeah

You can stay with me, let's just do it right
I don't wanna be, the nigga on the side

Your body already agrees
So let's make it official

I am, one of a kind, yes indeed
I'm all on my mind
Yes and we could be, having a helluva time
Without all the sticking around and lying
Told him you was going over your cousin's house
Shit more like over your future husband's house
Had to see what this all...thug about
Tell that man you're out, make you happy now

Girl let's make it official, oh yeah
Why don't we make it official, oh yeah

You can stay with me, let's just do it right
I don't wanna be, the nigga on the side
Your body already agrees
So let's make it official, official, official
Official, official, official, yeah
Just want you to be my girl, oh
Official, official, whoa, now
