Would you rather know the truth?
Oh oh, Even if it hurts you

So here we are
Can't believe our song is fading out
Thought we would dance like this forever
Now every single note is breaking down
Till there's no sound

When I'm choking on the thought of this
You broken up the next part of us
For once was it worth it?
Cause when the music ends
You won't be seeing me again,
And then you know if it was worth it

You were innocent, till I proved you guilty
Even though it kills me,
The truth is better than the lie
No going back, I've reached my final verdict
You had my heart and hurt it,
But I won't let you see me cry

This is our last dance... Our last dance
This is our last dance... Our last dance

So take my hand
Follow me down to the floor right now
Only have half of a song left to go
I'm not even angry for what you've done
I'm only sad I have to let go

When I'm checking on the thought of this
You broken up the next part of us
For once, was it worth it?
Cause when the records ends
You won't be seeing me again,
And then you know if it was worth it

You were innocent, till I proved you guilty
Even though it kills me,
The truth is better than the lie

No going back, I've reached my final verdict
You had my heart and hurt it,
But I won't let you see me cry

This is our last dance... Our last dance
This is our last dance... Our last dance

Oh oh
Would you rather know the truth?
Even if it was hurting you?
Could you say goodbye
If you knew that it was right?
If you knew that it was right...

You were innocent, till I proved you guilty
Even though it kills me,
The truth is better than the lie
No going back, I've reached my final verdict
You had my heart and hurt it,
But I won't let you see me cry

This is our last dance... Our last dance
This is our last dance... Our last dance
