Feel, It never was a better place
Cuz you backed down
From what you've done
Change, the thought of a tempered pace
Cuz you back out from what you've said.

Breakdown, Takedown, let me see
Look in my eyes and say you're fine
You're gone
Breakdown, Takedown, let me see
Love is patient and love is kind
You're gone

Touch, a temporary seditive
Cuz you've let go of what you know

Turns out crossing roads
And you've back down from who you are

Breakdown, Takedown, let me see
Look in my eyes and say you're fine
You're gone
Breakdown, Takedown, let me see
Love is patient and love is kind
You're gone

Breakdown, Takedown, let me see
Look in my eyes and say you're fine
You're gone
Breakdown, Takedown, let me see
Love is patient and love is kind
You're gone
