Take your number come on in the sheep are here the wolves begin they say they trust us Assembly lines of hate and fear some would say the end is near it's not it's not it's the beginning
So go ahead sit and stare it's all a game not played fair

Do you want to die for nothing or do you want to live

Sacrifice it all
They do not impress us they will second guess us
Sacrifice it all
And stand for something now

We took the time
To draw a line
They crossed it once
Too many times
So listen here is the mission it's time to break the addiction
No need to ask for permission
Go on and take your position

Do you want to die for nothing or do you want to live

Sacrifice it all
They do not impress us they will second guess us
Sacrifice it all
And stand for something now
Sacrifice it all
They do not impress us they will second guess us
Sacrifice it all
And stand for something now

So you want to fight for something
Then you got to believe in something
So you want to fight for something
Then you got to believe in something
If you don't want to fight for something
Just get up and leave
