Simple is affairs that touch the heart
Simple are the ways of love
Simple as the touch of another's hands
Simple enough for anyone to understand, but you

Simple are the ways we come apart
Simple as a babe is new Simple as a tree and as simple as a cloud
Its as simple as the simplest things have always been

Simple as the sun and the moon and the stars in the sky
Simple are the ways we say goodbye

I live in Paris with a man named Michelle Boulon
Simple is affairs that touch the heart
Michelle is 53, he is an investment banker, very handsome, charming, wealthy
The house we live in overlooks Park Munso
Simple are the ways of love

When I am not making a film
I get up around 7:30, have breakfast with Michelle
And then walk, if the weather is good
To the studio Vakel in Plash Clecian

Where I take a dance class
For lunch I generally eat in a small bar in the basement of the school
After lunch I take an acting class
Simple as a tree

Acting is what I care about Guido, and Michelle understands
Michelle does not distract me
I've made choices in my life, I know what I want
Simple are the ways we say goodbye
Chou, Guido, chou
