When the weight of the world is on my mind and on my shoulder
And I can't seem to find the peace I need.

When the burned and battered ground beneath my feet is getting colder
That's when you call me close to you.

Whenever darkness falls
And I feel like I am drowning
When every breath of air is hard to draw
When my heart feels like a stone
And I'm struggling on my own
I turn around and find my strenght in you

You're alone
You are one in a million.
Everyday in the world on your own
When the battlefield is roaring with silence
Just remember
When you face the unknown
You're not alone

Your light of love surrounded me
Even in my darkest hour
Your strength was like a tower tall and true
The sacrificace you made
The price you paid to see me through
I owe the better part of me to you.

You're alone
You are one in a million.
Everyday in the world on your own
When the battlefield is roaring with silence
Just remember

When you face the unknown

You're not alone

You're not alone

We're alone

We are one in a million.

Fighting battles everyday on your own

When the battlefield is roaring with silence

but all that you hear is silence

Just remember

When you face the unknown

You're not alone

You're not alone

You're not alone
