You never try to sympathise,
you never wanna say I'm right,
but, when the money's running low, you'll tell me what I wanna know.

Because I can't choose,
if I win I lose.

I never meant to make you sad, you're everything I ever had,
but, now the money's running dry, you'll be the first to fall in line.

Because I can't choose,
if I win I lose.

No, I can't be bothered to hear all your problems,
no, I can't be bothered to hear.

No, I can't be bothered to hear all your problems,
no, I can't be bothered to hear all your problems.

So, how did it happen?
You used your advantage,
yer, how did it happen again?
