Would hate to dissapoint you
But I think, I think I'm gona fall
Cos I'm scared of everything I can do
And I'm drawn to everything that's wrong.
And even though I can, you don't.

Turn around take a look take a laugh at my face
You learn to love the ones that you hate
Even though I can, you don't.

Thanks for making a decision
To leave you can never leave too soon
When your high, your higher than the heavens.
When your low, there's no one else but you.
Cos there's no in between is there

Turn around take a look take a laugh at my face
You learn to love the ones that you hate.
And even though I can you don't.
You wont

You take you take you take a long look at my face
You learn you learn you learn to love all that you hate
X2

And even though I cant, you don't, you wont, you wont
