I'm out on the wayside
Face down on the ground
Locked out from the inside
I'll never be found

I'm the salt in the water
I'm the scent in your hair
I'm the ring on your finger
I'll make you stare
And now I'm everywhere

Yeah now I'm everywhere

Three sides to the story
Two worlds collide
You'll fight for your country
I'll run for my life

I'm the salt in the water
I'm the scent in your hair
I'm the ring on your finger
I'll make you stare
And now I'm everywhere

I'm the salt in the water
I'm the face in the crowd
And the scratch in the mirror and the hole in the ground
I'm the shape in the shadows
I'm the scent in your hair
I'm the snake in the meadow
I'll make you stare
And now I'm everywhere

Yeah now I'm everywhere
