I feel alive before a show
I'm only happy with a road that leads across to San Francisco
See through ice on the back window
Moonlight reflecting off the snow
It's been some time since Colorado
Now I'm already gone
Catch me if you can
I will
Get out of New York again
Though I promise you I'll always come back home
And we'll never be alone
Broken down on the side of the road
Unhitched trailer, songs of gold
Alabama's watching us grow
Southern stars and glasses of wine
Golden girl in Carolina
Seventeen if her mother only knew
Now I'm already gone
Catch me if you can
I will
Get out of New York again
Though I promise you I'll always come back home
'Cause its here amongst my own
I've always got my home
And we'll never be alone
I asked her by the riverside
I held her under summer skies
I'm sorry for Chicago plane
I missed her with Seattle rain
Sitting on side of stages
With the girl I met that evening
Beautiful in every feeling
Every time my hearts been stealing
Catch me if you can
I will
Get out of New York again
Though I promise you I'll always come back home
And you'll never be
Catch me if you can
I will

Get out of New York again
Though I promise you I'll always come back home
'Cause its here amongst my own
I always got my home
And we'll never be alone
Never be alone
