There's a box of memories here on a mission
To pull the strings on our emotions if we let them go
And there's a pot of coffee brewing in the kitchen
Two cups, a conversation, resolution for the road Don't you think we maybe owe it to each other?
Don't you want to tell me everything I should have known?

I lied to myself, feel sorry for myself
I should have let you go, I don't know why I won't
I don't, I don't

And now I'm just as through with you as you could ever want me to See this your new reality
And now I'm just as through with you as you are through with me

When you said that you would stay well I believed it Then I watched you float away just like a butterfly
So free and beautiful I wish I hadn't seen it How can I pretend you're mine if I know otherwise

I lied to myself, feel sorry for myself
You carry me away, I don't know what to say
I don't, I don't

And now I'm just as through with you as you could ever
want me to See from a different point of view there are no eyes that make you true
The words on my tongue say I bleed
My wounded heart and wounded knees
Reminding me of every plea
And now I'm just as through with you as you are
through with me

Don't lie to yourself, feel sorry for yourself You're pushing me away
I don't know what to say
I don't, I don't

And now I'm just as through with you as you could ever
want me to See from a different point of view there are no eyes
that make you true
The words on my tongue say I bleed
My wounded heart and wounded knees
Reminding me of every plea
And now I'm just as through with you as you are
through with me
