I, don't mind, that I mind sometimes
It's easier with you girl
Ohhh, how I know
Yes the glow, the show,
The difference between them, go!

Separate the lines
Still hoping that your mind will be a friend with me and calling out your light
We gon' see our shadows dance and come to be

See how they love, still you won't go

Love and happiness is growin' in your vase
And all we think of time
Made it in our minds, the lines, the lines

I know why I find that line so haunting appealing

Cause ohhh, how it shows
Yes the glow, offset, the distance between us

And it's gonna get heavier, heavier
And it's gonna get brighter too
And it's been such a long time waiting for you

And it's all your wasted time, caught up in your mind
Your line, your mind, yes your line
It's all your wasted lines, caught up in your time, your time

And all this time you lost you'll learn again

It comes, it goes, it washes away
It comes, it goes, and what will you say
Don't get stuck in the meantime
No such thing as the meantime
(Repeat)
