6a.m, things are looking 'peachy'
Your glistening body laying to the right of me Baring scars and debris from the night before
You think it's all over but i'm lining you up for more
Dip dip sky blue who's 'it'? that's you
Dip dip sky blue who's 'it'? that's you

Early morning star

Standing to attention as the sun starts rising Shadows cross the room as i start prising
You are still sleeping as i cuff your hands tight
With a hand full of cheek i take my first bite
Softening you up for the blow i'm romancing your hole

Softening you up for the blow i'm romancing your hole

Early morning star

Slow but firm into the darkness
You tremor with excitement putting strain on your harness
Arching your back you push against me harder
Begging me anxiously to 'stroke' faster Slow slow quick quick slow your pleasure in pain i watch
you glow
Slow slow quick quick slow your pleasure in pain i watch
you glow
Slow slow quick quick slow your pleasure in pain i watch
you glow
Slow slow quick quick slow your pleasure in pain i watch
you glow

Early morning star
