Walking down the street, man you're so bold (So bold)
Seen your mom and dad and they're so cold (So cold)
Love will save your soul
Of feeling so alone and growing old

Come on up the stairs, man you got sold
Lost my train of thought and now I'm told
That love will save your soul
Of feeling so alone and growing old
Love, love, love,
Yeah love, love, love

(?) hunts for gold
Teachers cracking rules and now parole
Love will save your soul
Of feeling so alone and growing old
Love, love, love
Yeah, love, love, love

Love will always save your soul (Your soul)
Love will always save your soul (Your soul)
Love will save your soul
Love will save your soul
Love will always save your soul
Love will always save your soul
Love will save your soul
Love will save your soul

Love will always save your soul
Love will always save your soul
Love will save your soul
Love will save your soul
