the perfect drug

i got my head but my head is unravelling cant keep control can't keep track of where it's travelling i got my heart but my heart's no good you're the only one that's understood i come along but i dont know where you're taking me i shouldn't go but you're wrenching dragging shaking me turn off the sun pull the stars from the sky the more i give to you the more i die and i want you

you are the perfect drug
the perfect drug
the perfect drug
the perfect drug

you make me hard when i'm all soft inside i see the truth when i'm all stupid-eyed the arrow goes straight through my heart without you everything just falls apart my blood just wants to say hello to you my fears want to get inside of you my soul is so afraid to realize how very little good is left of me

and i want you

the perfect drug
the perfect drug
the perfect drug

take me with you

it's not as much fun to pick up the pieces
