"Wish"

this is the first day of my last days i built it up now i take it apart climbed up real high now fall down

real far.

no need for me to stay the last thing left i just threw it away

i put my faith in god and my trust in you now there's nothing more fucked up i could do wish there was something real wish there was something true

wish there was something real in this world full of you i'm the one without a soul i'm the one with this big fucking hole

no new tale to tell twenty-six years on my way to hell gotta listen to your big time hard line bad luck fist fuck don't think you're having all the fun you know me i hate everyone

i want to but i can't turn back but i want to
