The time has come, to shed a tear
This perfect love will bleed
Too close to see the damage done
But now I know I'm in need
I tried and lost
I'll fight for you
And now we'll be
The perfect 2

We can fly higher
Our hearts will soar over
This mountain of love
Will open the doors up and then you'll see
A perfect 2
And then we'll be

The years go by
And nothing's changed
The signs have come and gone
And what we knew was lost in space
The thief of time points and laughs
We'll let it be
To chance of love
We thought we were
The perfect 2

We can fly higher
Our hearts will soar over
This mountain of love
Will open the doors up and then you'll see
A perfect 2
And then we'll be
