She walks down the street
Alone in the dark
Her head's held up high
And she's got nothing fear

As she crosses the road
She looks to the stars and asks for advice
On where to go
Where to go from here

Jona Jona Vark
Her name is Jona Jona Vark
Her name is Jona Jona Vark
Her name is Jona Jona Vark

She found her place
Amongst the trees
She opened her eyes
And started to see
A flower in the distance
That showed her the way
To answer the questions
That we all like to ask

Jona Jona Vark
Her name is Jona Jona Vark
Her name is Jona Jona Vark
Her name is Jona Jona Vark

Her name is Jona Jona Vark
Her name is Jona Jona Vark
