Open your eyes
Chandeliers are gonna light the way
Take a step inside the masquerade
I know that it's late
But we're just getting started here
Soon the mystery will all be clear

I'll give you a taste
One drop will erase
All your defenses

Come in just a little bit closer now
You know that you want me to take you down
I'm the thrill that you can't escape
There's no way out
So don't you forget
You're caught in my spiderweb

You think that you know
What your body's getting into
But nobody's here to save you
It's been a while
Since I tapped into my appetite
But the hunger's coming back tonight

The more that you fight
The more that you're mine
I'll keep you forever

Come in just a little bit closer now
You know that you want me to take you down
I'm the thrill that you can't escape
There's no way out
So don't you forget
You're caught in my spiderweb

You don't know it yet
But you might regret
The moment we met
You're caught in my spiderweb
[x3]

Come in just a little bit closer now
You know that you want me to take you down
I'm the thrill that you can't escape
There's no way out
So don't you forget,
There's no way out of this
You're caught in my spiderweb
