I'm not saying for instigating
I'm just thinking you'd wanna come back home I'm here waiting and you're debating If the clouds will turn dark on your eyes Just 1, 2, 3, 4 footsteps on the street Would bring you closer to me

Baby, oh sweet baby
I wish your heels could be tired for me

I've been reading up on your star-like dreaming I ain't misbehaving It don't do me any good Are you greiving?
The moonlight's peaking Seeking any hidden thoughts of me Here's my warm arms to comfort you close by Awaiting you but they're just hugging the wind

Baby, oh sweet baby
I wish your heels could be tired for me
