We grew up together

We grew apart in everything we did

I saw in her surprise

But I never dared to try

And see my baby run

We took a hard load

Ten years on the same road

With a sink that never drained

I remember how she wept

When there was nothing left but death

And to see my baby run

See my baby run

She runs down on herself

Down on her luck

Blaming me 'cause I ain't the guy

Down on her luck, down on her luck

She, ahhh

I intend to find

See my baby run, see my baby run

see my baby run she's running out of town

I loved her freedom

I craved her scheming
When my mind turned to blanks
She always had her fun
Just grabbing for my gun
To see her baby stunned
We grew up bitter
I grew up smart
Just learning from her skills
And I always kind of felt
That there was nothing she wouldn't sell
To see my baby run
See my baby run
She runs down on herself
Down on her luck
Blaming me 'cause I ain't the guy
Down on her luck, down on her luck
She, ahhh
I intend to find
See my baby run, see my baby run
see my baby run she's running out of town
