I dug, dug, dug
And I stood in the dirt
Until the sun, sun, sun came low
And I was lost in the middle
Of a bathroom posted riddle
That would not leave me alone
I paved, paved, paved
A road for all my visions
Leading up to a ton of gold
But it was all just plated
So I laughed and I waited
For the bus to bring me home
I see things that just ain't there
Like one billion sheets of sky
I'm finished with the story
But I'm waking in the mornings
Because I'm too broke to die
So save, save, save
All your money in a deep grave
Have a good woman on your mind
Because when you're gone

There ain't no rights or wrongs

Just a big bill on your life

Chorus
