We're gonna find a way together. A little further and we're in.

Just wake me when its over. Got nothing left to give. Cuz lord knows that i'm weak and you can be so stubborn.

We killed out enemies and now there's no one left.

La La La and now there's no one left... La La La and now there's no one.

She knew - she knew all along We turned from soldiers into ghost We knew - we knew right from wrong We turned from soldiers into ghosts

We're always in these situations. Lighting strikes again. And if i learn to listen. Would you let me in? Cuz i can be so dumb but you have all the answers We conquered to quickly and now were by ourselves

She knew - she knew all along We turned from soldiers into ghost We knew - we knew right from wrong We turned from soldiers into ghosts
